<sup>1</sup>The five feeder funds whose investors are the subject of this Motion (the “Feeder Funds”) share the following characteristics: (1) they are legal entities (i.e., capable of owning property and of suing or being sued) that were created as investment vehicles; (2) they obtained monies that they used for investment by selling (directly or indirectly) ownership interests in themselves to the Claimants (as defined in the Motion) and other persons; (3) the Feeder Funds’ managers and administrators, not the Claimants, had responsibility for managing and directing the Feeder Funds’ investments; (4) they invested directly with BLMIS and had BLMIS accounts, according to the books and records of the Debtor; and (5) they do not include ERISA plans (and other entities whose property is treated as ERISA plan property), trusts, or pass-through, self-directed, or custodial investment vehicles such as banks, brokers or dealers.

<sup>4</sup> As per the available books and records of BLMIS.

<sup>5</sup> The Claimants who are subject to the Motion filed claims based upon losses suffered not in accounts in their own names but in the Feeder Funds’ accounts with BLMIS.
